RE: Learning Resources, Inc. v. Trump, No. 25-5202

Dear Mr. Cislak:

Earlier today, the district court entered the attached order staying its injunction in this case pending this appeal. That development renders moot the government's motion in this Court for a stay pending appeal.

Sincerely,

/s/ Daniel Winik

ORDER

GRANTING DEFENDANTS' MOTION TO STAY

Upon consideration of Defendants' motion to stay (ECF No. 41) enforcement of the Court's order entered May 29, 2025 preliminarily enjoining the United States from collecting tariffs from Plaintiffs pursuant to Executive Orders 14,195; 14,228; 14,257; 14,259; and 14,266 (ECF No. 35); it is hereby ORDERED that Defendants' motion is GRANTED. In issuing the preliminary injunction, the Court specifically referenced the related permanent injunction granted by the Court of International Trade. See Mem. Op. Denying Defs.' Mot. Transfer Venue; Granting Pls.' Mot. for Prelim. Inj. at 32–33, ECF No. 37. The Court acknowledged the national security and foreign policy concerns raised by Defendants but determined that those consequences would flow, if at all, from the CIT's more sweeping order. Id. That order has now been stayed by the Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit. A stay in this action is therefore appropriate to protect the President's ability to identify and respond to threats to the U.S. economy and national security; and it is FURTHER ORDERED that the effects of this Court's order granting Plaintiffs' motion for a preliminary injunction (ECF No. 35) and the accompanying memorandum opinion (ECF

No. 37) are hereby stayed pending disposition of the pending appeal before the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit.

SO ORDERED.
